

Warriors Bow, 43-6 To End Dismal Year

East Los Angeles JC handed El Camino the key to the Metropolitan Conference basement Saturday night as they buried the Warriors, 43-6, on the ELA field.

A shivering crowd of about 2000 fans huddled in the spacious, wind-swept stadium saw Anby Schindler's Warriors hold the Huskies scoreless during a dull first quarter.

Special Yule Branches

Christmas packages for distant parts of the United States should be mailed by December 5 and all parcel post should be on its way by December 10, Clara A. Conner, postmaster, warns.

To take care of the expected holiday crowds, three temporary locations will be opened December 10 to sell stamps and handle Christmas parcel mailings.

The new locations are Knolls Market, 23401 South Western; Home Loan Realty, 2475 Torrance boulevard, and McMaster Recreation Park, Yukon and 174th streets. The first two locations will be open from 9 in the morning until 6 in the evening. The McMaster Park office will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

GREYHOUND

The friendly way to travel

Then the avalanche began. Don Birren started the ELA scoring parade with a 12-yard blast over guard. Moments later Ben Molina skirted right end for 42 yards and a TD. Phil Johnson got the third Husky score on a 17-yard jaunt. Before the half ended, Tackle Bob Gasio of ELA dumped Max Burris in his own end zone for a safety.

In the third quarter the night got colder, and so did El Camino. Johnson rambed another 17 yards for a Husky score, and Jim Boyd hit pay dirt on a pass interception. Warrior Center Vince Benstead donated another two points to the ELA cause when he snapped the ball a mile over Bob Moneyman's head when the Warrior back was deep in punt formation in the end zone. He repeated this performance again in the fourth quarter for another safety.

Husky End Bob Atkins tallied the final TD for the winners when he grabbed Vic Cimarruti's pass in the end zone.

End John McCull scored the lone El Camino touchdown in the final period.

The loss was El Camino's ninth in 10 tries this year.

The victory was sweet revenge for East Los Angeles. Last year El Camino broke a 15-game win streak of the Huskies, winning 14-7 on route to capture the Metro crown.

Ace Vaughn Captures Trojan Singles Meet

Torrance Bowling Star Ace Vaughn was $200 richer today thanks to a terrific 1123 five-game effort at Trojan Bowl's Thanksgiving Day singles tourney in Los Angeles.

Bowling against 75 members of the tough Los Angeles All-Star League, Ace had a high game of 267, while his low was 200 during his red-hot series.

Brother Jim Vaughn placed third in the event with 1026, just one pin out of second place.

The Vaughn brothers will match strikes with two of Southern California's leading feminine keglers, Phyllis Vogel and Peggy Farley Saturday night at the Torrance Bowl. Second half of the match game will pit Short Varbrough and Ray Comerski against another pair of top women bowlers, Dottie Crouch and Faye Marshall.

Former Tartar Star Makes All-Star Club

Boyd Crawford, Torrance High star in 1949, has been named on Little All-Coast second team by the United Press.

Crawford played this year for the College of Idaho, which is coached by former Tartar grid boss Eddie Cole.

The Little All-Coast team is made up of players from the smaller schools of the West Coast. Crawford was the only member of the College of Idaho squad to be honored.

A cousin of Bill Crawford, Tartar quarterback during the past season, Boyd last year played for El Camino College. He is a sophomore now at the Idaho school.

Tor-Loms in Quest Of Seventh Straight

Torrance-Lomita's undefeated semi-pro baseballers face what may be their toughest test of the season Sunday when they run head-on into the Golden Eagles at Torrance Park.

The talented Tor-Loms will be in quest of their seventh straight victory of the season.

On the following two Sundays, the Tor-Loms, who have been poorly supported by the public despite their scintillating record, entertain the Los Angeles All-Stars and Compton to conclude their nine-game season.

Nick DeLuca came into his own for the Tor-Loms last Sunday with three hits in three tries as the local nine' downed the Glendale Pirates, 8-2.

The stout Tor-Lom defense and its excellent pitching have yielded only two runs in the last three games.

Torrance Rooters Near Perfection In Sportsmanship

Out of a possible 540 points for the Bay League Sportsmanship Trophy, Torrance lost only two points during the recently completed grid season, according to unofficial reports here.

Two league schools, however, wound up the football season with perfect records — Santa Monica and Leuzinger.

Torrance lost one point at the first game when a student was detected smoking in the rooting section. The local school lost the other point at the Beverly Hills game when the Band was late getting onto the field for the National Anthem, according to a Torrance High spokesman.

During the season Beverly Hills lost three points, Redondo five points, and Inglewood 12 points.

"When you stop to consider that the greatest loss of points in the league was only 12 points, you realize that the sportsmanship program is certainly a fine thing in the league," a school official commented.
